Welcome Wagon to Install New Officers at Luncheon

New officers for the Torrance Welcome Wagon Club will be installed during a luncheon meeting at the Redondo Elks Club today.

Chosen as the new President of the group is Mrs. Gale Lowder, mother of five children, who has been active in the organization since 1958. She will be replacing Mrs. Jack Bolt. Mrs. Lowder served as vice-president in 1959-60 and chairman of social activities. She was chairman of the Fashion Show held last month.

Women stepping into new positions for the coming year are: Mrs. Richard Cramolini, 1st vice president and program chairman; Mrs. Leroy Herald, 2nd vice president and reservations chairman; Mrs. John Caniff, 2nd vice president and ways and means chairman; Mrs. Ronald Jones, treasurer; Mrs. Charles R. Edwards, membership chair; and Mrs. Harold Korrell, historian.

Nancy Irons, area supervisor, will install the new officers.

Fourth Annual South High Concert Scheduled Tonight

Approximately 200 musicians members of the South High School music department, will present the fourth annual Spring Concert at the South High gymnasium beginning at 8 p.m. today. Admission to the concert is free.

Participating in the annual music program will be members of the concert band, girls' glee club, concert choir, orchestra, and soloists.

THE MUSIC of Richard Rogers will again be spotlighted during the course of the program as the concert band presents the popular symphonic scenario of "Victory at Sea."

The concert will be climaxed with the performance of Ralph Williams' patriotic setting of the American Panorama, featuring the entire cast of musicians. Popularity of the presentation has caused it to be placed on the program, Hawley said.

Assisting Hawley with the program will be Joanne Horne, director of the girls' glee club.

THE CONCERT choir of 100 voices will join the combined festival for the first time this year, according to Glenn Hawley, director of music for South High.

Highlights of the program will include the girls' glee club and the concert choir singing hit tunes from "South Pacific," "Oklahoma," "Flower Drum Song," "The King and I," and "The Sound of Music."

Two Executive Appointments Revealed by Fox

Robert E. Palmer, general manager of Fox Markets, Inc., announced two major executive-level appointments today. R. W. Christian has been appointed sales and merchandising manager for the perishables division of Fox Markets, which comprises the produce, delicatessen and meat depts. Also, from within the company, Art Lurie is elevated to the position of district manager for Fox Market Town Markets in Las Vegas, Nev.

Dick Christian brings to his position with Fox Markets 24 years of experience with food chains such as U.S. Food Stores of California, Purity Stores, Ltd. and for several years he successfully operated his own group of markets.

A recognized authority in the perishables field, it is anticipated that innovations and intensified merchandising methods will be swiftly introduced in the Fox chain by Christian, Palmer said.

Art Lurie receives a well-earned advancement to the post of District Manager for the Fox Market Town division of Fox Markets, Inc. in Las Vegas, Art has operated as grocery buyer in Las Vegas since the purchase of the Market Town Stores by the Fox chain. Advised of the good news by Palmer, Lurie stated, "I'm delighted with the promotion and in management's confidence in me."
